Systematic Payout & Withdrawal Plan/Option

Plan Description

Systematic Payout and Systematic Withdrawal Plan are Administrative Plans/options that provides investors with a stable income at regular intervals while seeking long-term preservation of capital by investing in units of Atlas Money Market Fund (AMF) or Atlas Income Fund (AIF).

Systematic Payout Option

The Systematic Payout option offers the choice of redeeming a certain number of units for fulfilling the investors' requirement of a certain amount at regular intervals (i.e. monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually). Such instructions shall be given in writing at the beginning of each regular interval or at the time of purchase of units.

a) If the value of investment increases during an interval, the Systematic Payout option calculates the number of units to be redeemed for the purpose of distribution of income in such a manner that the total redemption value of such units is equal to the increase in the value of investment during that interval, which means that the profit earned on the respective units due to increase in Net Asset Value (NAV) would be paid back to the investors, after deduction of capital gains tax, if applicable.

b) If the value of investment of the Plan falls due to decline in NAV of the units of the Fund during an interval, the Systematic Payout option will not redeem any units and no income would be paid at the end of that interval as there would not be any profits for payment.

Systematic Withdrawal Option

In Systematic Withdrawal option, the investors may decide any fixed amount from time to time to be paid at regular intervals (i.e. monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually). The investors, at the time of purchase or beginning of an interval, authorize AAML to redeem such number of units from their holding which in rupee terms is equivalent to the specified fixed amount that is to be paid at the end of every regular interval, after deduction of capital gains tax, if applicable.

It may be noted that the initial amount invested may deplete in case sufficient returns are not earned to cover the amount distributed to the investor.

a). If the value of investment increases during an interval, the Systematic Payout option calculates the number of units to be redeemed for the purpose of distribution of income in such a manner that the total redemption value of such units is equal to the increase in the value of investment during that interval, which means that the profit earned on the respective units due to increase in NAV would be paid back to the investors, after deduction of capital gains tax, if applicable.

b). If the value of investment of the Plan falls due to decline in NAV of the units of the Fund during an interval, the Systematic Payout option will not redeem any units and no income would be paid at the end of that interval as there would not be any profits for payment.

Systematic Withdrawal Option

In Systematic Withdrawal option, the investors may decide any fixed amount from time to time to be paid at regular intervals (i.e. monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually). The investors, at the time of purchase or beginning of an interval, authorize AAML to redeem such number of units from their holding which in rupee terms is equivalent to the specified fixed amount that is to be paid at the end of every regular interval, after deduction of capital gains tax, if applicable.

It may be noted that the initial amount invested may deplete in case sufficient returns are not earned to cover the amount distributed to the investor.
